OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF FOOD SUPPLIES IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Notification dated 30th October 1950.

No. E. 1 C. 4149—49-50. In pursuance of Clause 13 of the Mysore Rationing Order (Food) No. 2 of 1943, the Director of Food Supplies in Mysore, Bangalore, is pleased to make the following regulation in respect of the statutorily Rationed Areas in the State.

Clause 1.—This Regulation may be called the Statutorily Rationed Areas Regulation of 1950. It shall extend to the whole of the areas comprised in (1) the Bangalore Corporation, (2) Mysore City, (3) Kolar Gold Field and (4) Davangere and shall come into effect from 15th November 1950.

In this Regulation unless there is anything repugnant to the subject or context.—

(i) 'Form' means a form issued under this Regulation.

(ii) 'Manual Labourer' means a person engaged in manual work.

Explanation.—The decision of the Rationing Officer or authority or any Officer authorised by him in this behalf as to whether any person is or is not a manual labourer shall be final.

(iii) 'Family' means and includes a group of persons living together permanently and having their meals in common.

(iv) 'House-holder' means the head of the family or in his absence from the premises, the eldest member of the family present on the premises.

(v) 'Chief Rationing Officer' means an Officer appointed as such under Clause 2 of the Mysore Rationing Order (Food) No. 2 by the Government and where there is no Chief Rationing Officer, this term shall be taken to include Food Rationing Authority, Rationing Officer and Assistant Rationing Officer.

(vi) 'Food Inspector' and 'Assistant Food Inspector' (including Honorary Food Inspector) means an officer appointed as such by a competent authority.

(vii) 'Adult' means any male or female who has completed his or her eighth year.

(viii) 'Surrender Certificate' means a certificate issued by a competent authority in token of surrender of ration card or other authorisation to keep or obtain foodgrains.

Clause 2.—An authorised wholesale or retail distributor or establishment shall obtain a license or authorisation under the Foodgrains Control Order, 1942, and observe the conditions thereof.

CHAPTER II.

(HOUSE-HOLD CONSUMPTION).

Clause 3.—Rationed articles shall be issued only on the production of and to the extent noted in the Ration Cards or other documents.

Clause 4.—Any person residing or intending to reside in the Statutorily Rationed Areas in the State to whom a Ration Card has not been issued, or who is not included in any household for which a Ration Card is issued and who desires to have a Ration Card either for himself or on behalf of his household shall apply at the first instance to the Food Inspector of the Division in which he resides or intends to reside with an application enclosing therewith the surrender certificate, if any, issued to him from the area from which he comes and furnishing true and correct information in such form as the Rationing Officer may require. The Food Inspector may make or cause to be made such enquiry as he deems fit for the verification of the information furnished by the applicant.

Clause 5.—When the space provided in the Ration Card or recording issues of foodgrains is exhausted, additional cage slips may be issued by the Rationing Officer to be attached to the Ration Card and such cage slips when so attached become part of the Ration document. If for any valid reason the Rationing Officer thinks that it is desirable that fresh Ration Cards should be issued, he may, by a notification to be published in the Official Gazette, call upon every Ration Cardholder to truthfully declare in the form to be prescribed therefor, the number of persons living with the cardholder, the stocks of foodgrains held by him and any other information that the Rationing Officer may require, when such declarations are filed. Fresh Ration Cards shall be issued by the Rationing Officer after making necessary enquiries as to the correctness of the information furnished in the declarations.

Clause 6.—No person shall apply for a Ration Card if he has already obtained one or is included in a household or establishment for which a Ration Card or permit has been obtained and no person shall include in his application for a Ration Card any person who has been included in any other Ration Card.

Clause 7.—Any person who has received more than one Ration Card or who knows or has reason to believe that he is included in more than one household or establishment for which a Ration Card or permit has been issued shall forthwith report in writing the fact to the Food Inspector of the Division in which he resides.

Clause 8.—No person shall obtain or attempt to obtain a Ration Card by furnishing false information.

Clause 9.—No person shall obtain or attempt to obtain any rationed articles on more than one Ration Card issued in his name or for the household in which he is included.

Clause 10.—(i) The Ration Card shall be issued in the name of the head of the family on behalf of his household. Each Ration Card shall show the total quantity of each of the rationed articles allotted to the household in accordance with the scales of rations and the classification of ration cards prescribed from time to time.

(ii) Every holder of a Ration Card or in the event of the death of the holder of a Ration Card, any adult member of his household shall notify in writing to the Food Inspector of the Division in whose jurisdiction he resides, any reduction in the number of the household due to death, departure or absence exceeding two weeks or other cause and thereupon such officer may after making necessary enquiries, if any, arrange to revise the Ration Card. Any permanent increase to the household may also be similarly reported to the Food Inspector concerned and thereupon the officer in-charge of such office may, on production of necessary certificates and after making necessary enquiries, if any, arrange to revise the card and such revisions shall be attested on the Ration Card by the Assistant Rationing Officer

Clause 11.—A holder of a Ration Card may obtain his supply of the rationed articles only from the authorised retail distributor to whom his card is allotted by the Food Inspector of the Division concerned.

Clause 12.—(i) The holder of a Ration Card shall either in person or through an authorised agent present the Ration Card to an authorised retail distributor mentioned on the card in order to enable the distribution to enter his name, address and other particulars in the Ration Card in the Assignment Register maintained for the purpose. The holder of the Ration Card shall affix his signature in the Ration Card in the appropriate place and also on the counterfoil.

(ii) Every authorised retail distributor shall register the Ration Card assigned to him in his registers in serial order and note the quantity of rationed articles specified therein. He shall obtain the signature to the Ration Card and detach the counterfoil of such card and preserve all such counterfoils in the order of receipt.

Clause 13.—(i) On demand and upon payment of price by or on behalf of the holder of a Ration Card assigned to an authorised retail distributor, and against the appropriate entry in the Ration Card and in the concerned registers maintained for recording the issues as they are made, the distributor shall supply to the holder, rationed articles not exceeding the quantities specified therein, subject to such instructions as may be issued from time to time by the Rationing Officer.

(ii) The distributor shall comply with such other directions as may be issued by the Rationing Officer in this behalf.

Clause 14.—The Rationing Officer may issue instructions transferring the name of a person assigned to any authorised retail distributor from such distributor to any other authorised retail distributor, provided that no application for the transfer of a Ration Card from one retail distributor to another shall ordinarily be entertained, when the person so applying is not residing in the zone assigned to such distributor.

Clause 15.—An authorised retail distributor shall maintain such registers as may be prescribed and shall submit the registers at least once a month for the inspection of the Food Inspector of the Division concerned.

Clause 16.—He shall at intervals of not less than a week submit his indent register to the Food Inspector of the Division concerned, who shall, after scrutiny, countersign the indent register and return to the distributor the quantity of the articles obtainable thereon.

Clause 17.—(a) An authorised retail distributor shall not issue any rationed articles except on a valid ration document endorsed to him.

(b) He shall not issue any article otherwise than in accordance with the quantities permitted on the ration document.

(c) He shall not sell any article at rates higher than the controlled rates.

(d) He shall not issue rationed articles on a ration document which has been notified to him by the Food Inspector to have been lost or cancelled.

Clause 18.—Every authorised retail distributor shall issue a cash bill in respect of all sales of rationed articles.

Clause 19.—Every authorised retail distributor shall maintain the accounts in such form as may be prescribed and shall submit such returns to the Rationing Officer within such period as may be prescribed and comply with such other directions as may be issued by him or the officer authorised by him in this behalf.

Clause 20.—Any person finding or being in possession of a ration document not issued in his name or for the household in which he is included shall surrender such document, to the Food Inspector of the Division where he resides.

Clause 21.—The holder of a ration document when he leaves the statutorily rationed area permanently shall surrender his ration card to the Food Inspector of the Division. On receipt of such documents the Food Inspector shall cancel the document and if so required issue a certificate to the holder thereof that the said card has been surrendered.

Clause 22.—A holder of a ration document when he changes his residence from one division to another, shall report to the Food Inspector within one week from the date of such change and shall surrender the ration document to the Food Inspector of the Division from which the card was issued and after obtaining a certificate, as required in the preceding clause shall apply to the Food Inspector of the division in which he intends to reside and obtain a new Ration Card or permit on making an application in the form prescribed.

Every card holder shall report to the Food Inspector any change in his residence within one week from the date of such change.

Clause 23.—No person not authorised in this behalf shall alter, deface or cancel any entry made in a document.

Clause 24.—No catering establishment, institution or residential establishment shall obtain its rations except on a ration permit issued by a competent authority.

Clause 25.—The holder of a ration permit shall get himself registered in the following manner :—

(a) He shall either in person or through an agent present the ration permit to the Assistant Rationing Officer in order to enable him to enter his name, address and signature in the ration permit.

(b) He shall either in person or through an agent permit the Assistant Rationing Officer to detach and retain with him the counterfoil of the ration permit. He shall affix his thumb impression or signature to such counterfoil.

Clause 26.—A ration card for obtaining rationed articles for the purposes of the establishment shall be issued in the name of the establishment shall be issued in the name of the proprietor or person in charge of an authorised catering establishment, institution or residential establishment.

Clause 27.—The holder of a ration permit shall get himself registered in the following manner :—

(a) He shall either in person or through an agent present the ration permit to the Food Inspector in order to enable him to enter his name, address and signature in the ration permit.

(b) He shall either in person or through an agent permit the Food Inspector to detach and retain with him the counterfoil of the ration permit. He shall affix his thumb impression or signature on such counterfoil.

Clause 28.—No person shall obtain a ration card or permit by furnishing false information.

Clause 29.—The Rationing Officer with whom the holder of a ration card seeks registration shall enter in the ration card presented to him his name and signature. He shall detach and retain with him the counterfoil of such ration cards. He shall preserve all such counterfoils. He shall enter the serial number on the ration card and the quantities specified thereon in a register to be maintained by him.

Clause 30.—Once every week or at intervals not exceeding one month as the Rationing Officer may direct, the holder of a ration permit shall submit the same to the Food Inspector who shall against appropriate entry in the ration permit issue a coupon specifying in terms of bags of stated average capacity the quantity obtainable thereon, provided that in specifying the number of such bags, the Food Inspector may round off any fraction thereon in the manner he thinks fit.

Clause 31.—The coupon so issued shall be retained by the Food Inspector and the other copy shall be made valid for the month in which it is issued or for such shorter period as the Rationing Officer may fix.

Clause 32.—On demand and upon payment of price by or on behalf of a holder of a coupon and against cancellation and retention of such coupon, a person in charge of a godown appertaining in the rationed article and under the control of Government or an authorised wholesale distributor, shall supply to the holder the quantities specified on such coupon.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this Regulation an authorised wholesale distributor shall mean :—

1. The Assistant Director of Food Supplies, Depots.
2. The Mysore Sugar Company.
3. Government Sub-Reserve Depots.
4. District Reserve Depots.
5. Flour Mills.

Clause 33.—(i) On demand and offer of price by a resident in the establishment, the person in charge of the establishment shall supply food prepared from the rationed articles.

(ii) The person in charge of the establishment may supply food prepared from the rationed articles to any other customer for the purpose of only establishment consumption.

Clause 34.—A ration permit for obtaining bran shall be issued in the name of the person in charge of an authorised animal establishment. The holder of such a ration permit shall register himself with an authorised flour mill, which for this purpose will be recognised as an authorised retail distributor.

Clause 35.—Where rationed articles other than bran are required for consumption by animals at any authorised animal establishment, the ration permit for obtaining such articles may be issued in the name of the person in charge of such establishment.

Clause 36.—Such permits will be registered with the Assistant Rationing Officer in the manner provided under clauses 32 and 33.

Clause 37.—Ration permits for obtaining wheat and wheat products by bakeries will be issued in the name of the Proprietor in charge of the establishment.

Clause 38.—Once every month or at shorter intervals the proprietor in charge of the establishment shall submit to the Assistant Rationing Officer the register together with the counterfoils and shall specify separately the total number of units in respect of bran and in respect of wheat and wheat products registered with him. The Assistant Rationing Officer shall then issue to the person in charge of an authorised flour mill a coupon on the basis of the said units of bran and wheat flour specifying in terms of bags of stated average capacity of wheat obtainable thereon and the period for which the coupon is valid, provided that in specifying the number of such bags the Assistant Rationing Officer may round off any fraction thereof in the manner he thinks fit. The coupon shall be drawn up in duplicate One copy shall be retained by the Assistant Rationing Officer and the other copy shall be delivered to the holder of the coupon.

Clause 39.—On demand and offer of price by or on behalf of the holder of a ration coupon and against the cancellation and retention of such coupon the person in charge of a godown appertaining to the rationed articles and under the control of Government shall supply to the holder wheat in quantities specified on such authority.

Clause 40.—Persons requiring supplementary rations for special functions such as marriages, upanayanams and funerals, etc., may apply to the Assistant Rationing Officer who will make or cause to be made such enquiry for purposes of verification as is prescribed.

Clause 41.—On receipt of such application and on being satisfied, the Assistant Rationing Officer or any other officer authorised by him may authorise issue of such rations not exceeding the maximum prescribed in this behalf from time to time.

Clause 42.—Railway receipts relating to consignments of rationed articles received by holders of ration cards for domestic consumption shall be presented with the Ration Card to the Rationing Officer for countersignature. The Rationing Officer will maintain a register and after making the appropriate entries and after adjusting the articles on the Ration Card will countersign the railway receipt and return it to the party.

Clause 43.—Receipt of any consignment of rationed articles otherwise than by rail on permits shall be intimated in writing to the Food Inspector of the Division concerned within a week of receipt. The Food Inspector will then make the necessary adjustment on the Ration Card. The adjustment so made under this clause, as also under clause 42 above, will be intimated to the retail distributor with whom the card is registered and the quantities so adjusted will be deducted from the supplies to be made to the retail distributor. The excess, if any, will be placed at the disposal of the Rationing Officer of the area.

Clause 44.—No person shall transport rationed articles within the limits of statutorily rationed area unless covered by a ration document.

Clause 45.—No person other than an authorised retail or wholesale distributor shall engage in the sale of any rationed article.

Clause 46.—Every person suspected or known to be carrying any rationed article or dealing in rationed article, shall on demand by an Officer of the Food Department not lower in rank than an Assistant Food Inspector and all Police Officers of and above the rank of Station House Officer, produce the ration documents or other valid permit as may be in his possession for doing so.

Clause 47.—Any Officer of the Food Department not lower in rank than an Assistant Food Inspector, and all Police Officers of and above the rank of Station House Officer may seize any rationed articles found being transported or stocked or sold without a valid permit.

Clause 48.—Any Officer of the Food Department not lower in rank than an Assistant Food Inspector and all Police Officers of and above the rank of Station House Officer, may, on information received that a person residing in a statutorily rationed area is dealing in rationed articles unauthorisedly or has stocked more than the quantity permissible under the rules, enter and search any premises, having due regard to decency and seize and transport rationed articles not covered by a valid permit.
